Discovering Richmond

Morning:

Start your day in Richmond with a visit to the Richmond Good Food Market at historic Richmond Park. Held every Saturday from 8am–1pm, it's a favourite for both locals and visitors. Wander through the vibrant stalls filled with fresh local produce, artisan treats and handmade goods—perfect for sampling flavours of the region or picking up something special to enjoy later.

Midday:

After the markets, take a leisurely stroll along Windsor Street. This charming precinct offers a delightful mix of boutique fashion, unique handmade pieces, well-known brands and timeless antiques, making it ideal for a relaxed browse.

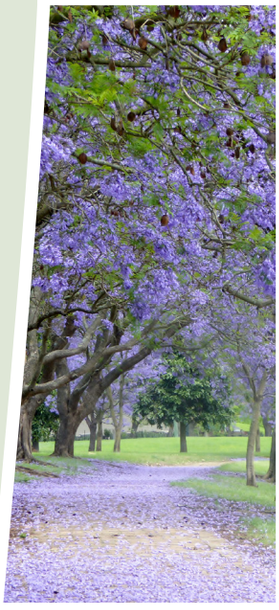

Afternoon:

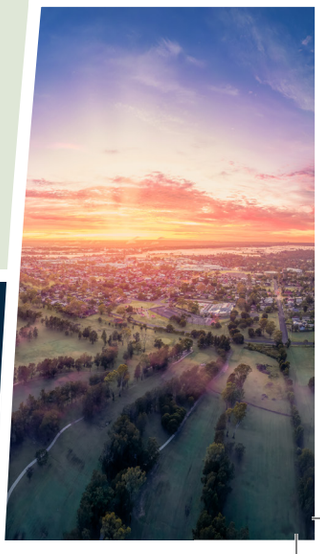

Next, step back in time with a free self-guided Historic Heritage Highlights tour. Discover Richmond's fascinating past while admiring its beautifully preserved buildings. You can download the guide from discoverthehawkesbury.com.au before you go.

When it's time to unwind, settle into one of the town's historic pubs for a refreshing drink and a light bite, soaking in the welcoming atmosphere

If you're staying into the evening, check what's on at the newly renovated Regent Theatre, a much-loved landmark hosting touring shows and events.
