Discover the Hawkesbury

Exploring Bilpin along the Bells Line of Road

Early Morning: Begin your day by soaking in the view during sunrise at Bellbird Hill, a serene start before heading on route to your first stop in Bilpin.

Morning: Head west along Bells Line of Road, to begin your adventures. Looking for coffee or breakfast? Choose between Pie in the Sky Roadhouse (opens 8am), The Grumpy Baker (opens 7am), or The Hive Berambing (opens 9am), each offering a unique experience to savour.

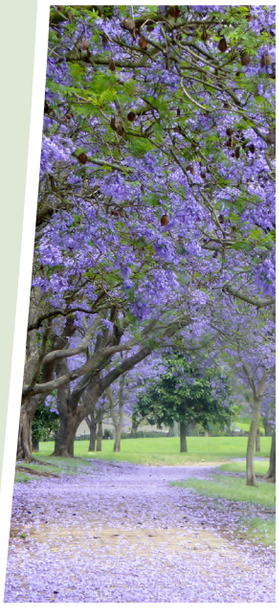

Midday: Wander through cool climate gardens at The Blue Mountains Botanic Garden, Mount Tomah, entry is free (open 7 days). Experience basalt cap forests, and UNESCO World Heritage wilderness. Whether you're a hiker or simply enjoy a quiet stroll, it's the perfect escape.

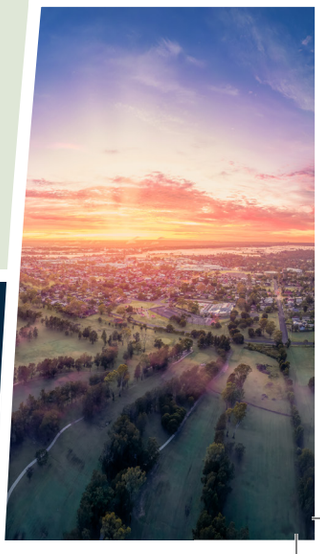

After exploring, return to Bilpin to one of the local distilleries or cideries. Taste and take home some local beverages from Old Shed Distillery, Bilpin Cider Co, or Hillbilly Cider.

Afternoon: Feed, pet and get to know the fluffy, friendly alpacas at Madisson's Mountain Retreat. Make sure to prebook this one, as it's a popular stop.

End your visit to Bilpin with a classic apple pie treat or take home for a perfect souvenir. If you are unsure where to purchase from refer to our handy list located inside our Bilpin's Apple Pie trail flyer.
